Thirty-Six Finish At Y High School; Moffitt Speaker

Graduating exercises were held last night in College hall for the students of the "Y" high school. Thirty-six students received diplomas.

The program furnished was as follows: The Senior March; violin solo, LaNila Jackson; Invocation, Tom Eastmond, cornet solo, Dick Johnson, address of welcome, Smoot Brimhall, Senior class president; prognostication, Darlene Owens and Roy Hammond.

Address to the graduates, J. C. Moffitt, principal of the Provo high school; presentation of diplomas, President Harris, vocal solo, Florence Woodhouse; benediction by Elizabeth Holbrook.

The following students received their diplomas: Tom Eastmond, Keith Hatch, Vernon Kirk, Fred Kartchner, Darlene Owens, Roy Hammond, Marjorie Smith, Anne Bennett, Myron Rowen, Lucy Dudley, Smoot Brimhall, Beth Ostler, Eldon Nielson, Arland Brooksby, Alice Huckins, Irene Brooksby, Elizabeth Holbrook, Webster Decker, Harold Perlman, Ronald Jones, Bob Harris, Hatch Farnsworth, Louis Ludlow, Woodrow Wilson, Florence Woodhouse, Ruby Cox, LaPrele Morley, Muriel Harris, LaNila Jackson, Maxine Henrich, Margaret Hill, Thurber Prows, Don Woodward, Elma Hanson, Neva Hanson, Dick Johnson, and Althea Marsden.

Awards Conferred On Prep Leaders

The annual award day of the B. Y. high school was held Tuesday.

Three presentations of the Senior Medal were made to Darlene Owens, Fred Kartchner, and Tom Eastmond. This signifies that they have won at least four activity pins in two different fields and have had a high scholarship standing as well.

Basketball awards went to Tom Eastmond, captain, Jack Eastmond, Dick Grinnett, Bud Bow, Ronald Jones, Webster Decker, Grant Holt, Welby Aagard, and Albert Swenson.

Tennis was represented by Jack Eastmond, Tom Eastmond, Grant Holt, and Albert Swenson.

Phyllis Dixon, Helen Harris, Darlene Owens, James Martin, and Fred Kartchner received awards for debating.

Norma Pardoe, Webster Decker, Martha Coleman, and Roy Hammond won recognition for the best handling

The Last Night on the Campus

By F. HOWARD FORSYTH

He walked from his girl-friend's presence,—
A Senior, with thoughts disconsolate.
Commencement and the addresses
Had moved to the past forever.
He was not rude to the lady
But said, "The affair is signal;
'Tis my last night on the campus."
His emotions arose enormous.

But he threw back his shoulders, saying
"This morning the valedictorian Declared we would face life with courage."

The stars that shone down on the campus
Would shine on the world forever
But he stopped and gazed at them shining
As if they would die in the morning
And fade like the dreams of a Freshman.
He brushed back a tear from his eyelids.
"This thing we call Life is relentless;
Just four years and I am a Senior,
And those little grade-schools are Freshies.
Shortly my class will be scattered.
I'm passing a definite milepost:
The impress it leaves me is tragic."

When up on the Hill by the Maeser
He threw himself down on the greensward,
Cupped chin in his hands. All was quiet
But Lovers' Lane brook on the hillside;
And the heart in him rose with emotion
Recalling the memories it harbored,
Thus like an old man he reflected
And bothered his three years and twenty

Surprises to Mark Senior Pilgrimage; Ball Climaxes Day

Thrills and mystery aplenty await seniors on their pilgrimage tonight, according to Miss Zelma Winterton, who is in charge.

Seniors and graduate students are requested to meet on the steps of the Education building at 6:00 o'clock tonight, in their caps and gowns. The procession will be led by Rigby Jacobs, class president.

Special features and surprises will be found all along the way.

The day will be climaxed with the Senior ball, at the Ladies' gym, at 9:00. The Seniors are inviting other members of the student body to attend. The latter will be admitted on presentation of their activity cards. There will be special programs for the dance.

Senior day officially opened this morning at 7:30 with the Senior breakfast in Room D. Miss Wilma Hanson was in charge of the event, and Rigby Jacobs acted as toastmaster. Musical numbers were presented during the course of the breakfast.

The Senior program, under the direction of Claude Snow, consisted of the following numbers:

Senior procession in caps and gowns. Rigby Jacobs conducted the exercises. A string trio, Lucile Merrill, Sina Brimhall and Marion Gilchrist, rendered "Memories" before prayer, which was offered by Howard Kelly. After prayer, the trio played "Liebestraum," by Liszt.

Morris Clinger read Philip Hubbard's "Crumbles that Fall." This was followed by a vocal solo, "Happy Days" by Needham, sung by Wilma Hanson.

A double mixed quartette: Pauline Bennett, Gertrude Gourley, Maxine Clayton, Grove Haddock, Claude Snow, Floyd Fletcher and Frank Speckart, under the direction of Pauline Bennett, sang "Hymn of Love," from the New World Symphony by Dvorak.

Under the direction of Ruth I. Johnson and Bessie Collins, the following cast presented a skit centering around the prognostication and endowment: Art Hasler, Rigby Jacobs, Monte Wentz, Kent Johnson, Benish Strickler, Pauline Bennett, Barr Washburn, Waldo Hodson, T. Hettig and Mary Ashby.

The committee in charge of the program were: Claude Snow, chairman, Bessie Collins, Ruth I. Johnson and Pauline Bennett. Waldo Hodson is chairman of the social

Y Summer Session Offers Unusual Values

Editor, Manager of News to Marry B. Y. Graduates

Both the editor and the business manager of the Y News will forsake the state of single blessedness during commencement week.

Editor Carlton Culmace will marry Miss Edna Ball on Baccalaureate Sunday, June 5. Manager Vern D. Greene will be united with Miss Ada Birch on Commencement day, June 8.

Miss Ball graduated from the Y in 1930 and was Valedictorian of her class. She has been teaching at Provo high school. Miss Birch is the daughter of Mr. E. Frank Birch, president of Tintic stake. She has been teaching in Eureka since graduating from the B. Y. U. with a normal diploma in 1930.

Art Majors Are Colorful Figures

By MAUREAN JOHNSON

Among the graduates this year will be three majors in art: Farrell Collett, Ethel Strauser and LaRue Nielson.

Montpelier, Idaho is the home of Farrell Collett, president of the A. S. B. Y. U. Most of his training in art before his entrance at the Y was self-directed. Farrell received practical experience on high school year books. While here, he has exhibited work in the Utah state fair, winning first prize in linoleum blocking. He has placed second in an international poster competition.

Three years during his college career, Farrell has assisted in junior poster decorations. He has contributed art to the Children's Friend, Relief Society Magazine and Scratch. He worked on the Banyan staff three years, the third year being the editor of a highly creditable yearbook.

His ambition is to reach the highest possible point in illustration work for publications and pictorial advertising.

Ethel Strauser comes from Sullivan, Missouri. She attended South-Western State Teachers college and the University of Missouri.

FATHER OF ACTIVE STUDENT PASSES AWAY

Charles R. Miller, father of Phyllis Miller, prominent Y student, died June 1st following a protracted illness. He had been in ill health since suffering a stroke some 18 months ago.

The institution extends sympathy to the family.

HARRIS TO SPEAK TO OGDEN NOTABLES

President Franklin S. Harris will journey to Ogden Thursday, June 16, to speak before the Ogden Chamber of Commerce and the county officials of the vicinity. His subject will be Home and Community problems.

President Harris has also been invited to speak in Chicago this summer to the Jewish Leor society on the problem of Jewish colonization in Siberia. He has as yet made no decision as to whether he shall go or not.

Y

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS, 1932-1933

Ellis McAllister, president, comes from Dixie. He is an ex-school teacher and an alumnus of Dixie college.

Leona Romney, vice-president, claims Chicago for her home town although she was born in Mexico. She has a double major—art and music.

LaPriell Myers, secretary, previously attended the A. C. before coming to Brigham Young. While there she was active in student body affairs.

Her work tends toward naturalistic portrayal. She says that color harmonies attract her most in her art work.

She was drawn to the B. Y. by it being a church school, and its art advantages. At Aspen Grove she studied under Hansen Puttiff. Later she worked under E. H. Eastmond and B. F. Larsen.

She exhibited in the Utah State fair, winning two first prizes, one in water color and one oil. She also exhibited at the Utah State exhibit. She won the medal for the best painting of Timpanogas last spring and this spring first prize for the best landscape in water color.

She expects to take up art as her life work, and feels she has had an advantage in studying under Professors Eastmond and Larsen.

LaRue Nielson from Salt Lake City previously studied life drawing at the University of Utah, under Professor Harwood, and designed with Miss Carlolae Perry. She is most interested in landscape study in oil. Her scenes are especially good because they are big, frank and direct, and lack the "faintness" often associated with art portrayals by girls.

Sandgren Heads Local Chapter of Honor Fraternity

Charter members of Blue Key, national honor fraternity which has consented to establish a chapter at Brigham Young university, elected officers last night in 260-E.

Clyde Sandgren, yearbook editor, was chosen president. Glen Webb, vice-president, Howard Cottam, secretary and historian, Ray Peterson, treasurer, and Student President, Farrell Collett, sergeant-at-arms.

Recently the Y petition for a local chapter was accepted by the national organization. Instructions for installation were received Wednesday. That day a meeting was held and the constitution, presented by Mr. Sandgren, was accepted.

The charter members are Sandgren, Webb, Cottam, Peterson, Collett, Rigby Jacobs, Carlton Culmace, Mark Brockbank, Elwood Romney and Morris Clinger.

The pledging of these men will take place at the installation luncheon to be held at 1:00 p. m. today, at Keeley's. Other members will be received into the organization soon.

With unusual opportunity for educational and social advancement the regular Summer Session of Brigham Young university opens this year on June 13. The first term ends by the Alpine session commencing July 25, and ending August 26.

An entrance fee of $20 for the first term and $25 for the Alpine session will be charged. For those who register for both terms the fee will be $35. Board and room for the Alpine term are only $45 this year.

An added special feature of the course will be the appearance of Dr. Kimball Young, former Y man, and at present professor of social psychology at the University of Wisconsin. Of lectures, five in each series. The first of these will be entitled "Personality Problems of the School Child." The second series, "Problems in Contemporary Public Opinion," will include an interesting study of the forces and influences governing public opinion.

The summer quarter this year presents a liberal offering of courses in many lines, and provides close personal contact between instructor and student.

Professor Guy C. Wilson will be in charge in the absence of Dean Hugh M. Woodward, who is teaching this summer at the University of Washington at Seattle.

LITERATURE CLASS TRANSFORMED INTO MUSICAL PROGRAM

Combining literature with music, Miss Reynolds, professor of music, turned her class in Victorian Poets into a vocal recital Monday afternoon at the home of Professor Franklin S. Madsen. Poems by Tennyson, Stevenson, Christina Rossetti, Henley, Kipling and other well-known English writers, set to music, were sung.

The vocalists were Miss Marguerite Jepperson, Mrs. Reva Smoot, Miss Rita Gines, Dr. Madsen, Hillman Snell, Douglas Merrill.

Florence Jepperson Madsen directed the recital and accompanied. Refreshments were served.

Injured Bandman
Thanks Y Friends,
Tells Condition

Gordon Braun, the student bandman injured in the auto accident on University hill last winter, has expressed in a recent letter his appreciation for the friendship shown him by the faculty and students of the B. Y. U. Regarding the hundred dollar check sent him as the result of a insurance dancy held in his honor, he says:

"I wish you to know that I appreciate this gift but more than ever the sentiment of good will that accompanied it as expressed in the letter. Not until my accident did I realize that I had so many friends in your institution, and I can never forget the friendship which you have shown me during my convalescence."

"I am steadily regaining strength and am now able to sit in a wheelchair although it will be several months before I am able to leave the hospital."

"I shall greatly appreciate having any of you call on me or write me and I very often think of you, and hope to resume my course at the B. Y. U. this coming year."

for normal diplomas.

For the Commencement exercises,
the Faculty will assemble at 9:00 a.
m. in the Faculty room. The graduating classes will meet in Room D. The same order will be followed as on the preceding occasion. The members of the graduating classes will march by schools in this order: Graduate college, Applied Science, Arts and Sciences, Commerce, Education, Fine
Arts, Normal. Alumni will follow.

Within the colleges the marchers will observe alphabetical order according to their surnames.

PEOPLE YOU SHOULD KNOW

WAS PREXY IN 1920

Among the masters' degrees being taken out this year, is one to be conferred upon one of the most active students in the history of the school.

Joseph Jarvis, student body president in 1919-20, business manager of the Y News in 1918-19 and business manager of the Bannan in 1921-22 has just completed a thesis in Economics entitled "Trends in public expenditure for roads and for public schools in Utah county—1920-1930."

Mr. Jarvis has spent part of the last ten years teaching at Weber college and other places and has returned to Young last fall to complete his work for a Master's degree in economics.

Professor: "Yes, sir, I'm a self-made man."

Student: "Are you boasting or apologizing?"

People You Should Know-

PRESIDENT-ELECT OF BRIGHAM YOUNG U.

Mark Eggertson, president-elect of the A. S. B. Y. U. was born in Provo 12 years ago. While attending the Provo high school, he was active in both scholastic and extra-curricular activities, occupying, among other positions, the offices of Junior class president and student manager.

Since attending B. Y. U., he has occupied a number of positions of prominence. He was president of his Freshman class, and this year he has skillfully discharged the duties of Junior Prom chairman.

The president-elect attended Boston university last year, receiving much valuable information there as to student body activities in Eastern universities. He is a commerce major, having been recently made a pledge of the national commerce fraternity, Alpha Kappa Psi. He is a member of the Viking social unit.

FAUN IVINS

We present Miss Faun Ivins as the vice-president elect of Brigham Young university associated students. Miss Ivins was born in Lund, Nevada in 1910, the exact month not being known. She attended the White Pine County High school of Ely, Nevada and graduated in 1927.

Faun taught school for two years and instructed in every class from kindergarten to the eighth grade.

Strange as it seems Miss Ivins likes school better than anything else. She also loves to read and can sleep any time, any place, or any where. Miss Ivins' hobby is music and her vocation is dramatics.

As for her favorite food Faun says she is easily satisfied, but leans toward anything fresh.

Miss Ivins was a reporter on her high school paper and president of the English club. Faun is a member of the Costa Psi social unit and a member of the honorary dramatic fraternity, Theta Alpha Psi.

RHODA JOHNSON

Meet Miss Rhoda Johnson, secretary-historian elect for the 1932-33 Associated students of Brigham Young university. Miss Johnson was born in Idaho Falls, Idaho 21 years ago or less and graduated from Idaho Falls High school in 1924. From here she entered the L. D. S. Training Hospital and graduated in 1927.

Miss Johnson was called on a mission to the North Central States where she stayed for two years.

Upon being asked what her favorite food was she said, "Since I am a nurse I suppose it ought to be spinach, but being human its ice cream cones." Miss Johnson's hobby is making scrapbooks and she does it with a vengeance because all her professors think her journals show that tendency (so she says).

Miss Johnson was chairman of the Junior Prom in high school, literary editor of the school paper and Salutatorian of her class. In L. D. S. Training hospital, she was president of her class and editor of the Hospital Annual. She was also Valedictorian of her Hospital class. She is a Fidelas.

EDITOR-ELECT OF Y NEWS

Glen Wilkinson, newly elected editor of the 1932-33 Y News, has held numerous newspaper positions. Among the most important are: Sports editor Y News, under T. Hettig and Carlton Culmsee during 1930-31. He has worked on the sports staff of the Ogden Standard-Examiner and Pocatello Tribune in 1929-30 and has held correspondent jobs in Ogden and Provo for the Salt Lake Telegram, United Press, and Associated Press.

He graduated from Weber high school in 1928 and entered the B. Y. U. in 1928. He won the fresh football numeral in 1928 and a varsity football award in 1931.

During 1929-30 he stayed out and returned to the B. Y. U. for 1930-31. He is president of the Tausig social unit this year, is a member of the Alpha Kappa Psi and a junior in the college of commerce. Mr. Wilkinson states that he has never been in love.

FROSH ELECTED BANYAN CHIEF

Ralph Jensen, who was recently elected Banyan editor for 1932-33 is a Freshman at the B. Y. U. He entered last fall after studying architure with a New York Architectural firm in New York for two years following his graduation from Ogden high school in 1927.

While in New York he attended night school at Columbia university and was associated with the B. Y. U. Alumni association there. He has been associated with eminent artists in Utah for the past few years. He has contributed striking woodcuts to the Y News.

YELLMASTER SMART

Neff Smart, cheerleader, was born in Provo some odd years ago and intends to vote the democratic ticket in the fall. He is majoring in Chemistry but finds time to do a good bit of wrestling and says he likes it. While attending B. Y. high he was yell leader and student president. He says he likes plenty of what you've got, and apple pie.

INTEREST CENTERS ON R. M. C. MEET

Dopesters Predict Battle Among U. Y. And C. A. Teams For Title

The eyes of track fans from the whole intermountain country will be focused on the Utah stadium today and tomorrow as athletes from each school of the R. M. C. vie for honors in the quadrennial meet. Dopesters predict a three-cornered duel between Brigham Young, Utah U. and Colorado Apatite, each of these schools boasting of well-balanced teams. The Utah state title, is a slight favorite, but Young, with victory over both the Utes and Utah State in dual meets, promises to make a strong bid. Colorado Apatite, led by their iron man, Ivan Dymalov, is also in a splendid position to grab honors. Twenty-eight Cougars, led by Captain "Tog" Easonmeyer, will represent Brigham Young in the classic and are expected to garner about 55 points. This total, though not enough to clinch the meet will top the list if Utah U. and Colorado Apatite split points in the manner suggested by many dopesters.

Cougars who are expected to turn in first place are Lamar Taylor in the mile, Brad Jensen in the 100-yard dash, and Jack Taylor in the 100-yard dash. The latter two are expected to win. The meet, which was originally scheduled for the middle of June at Newark, New Jersey, was just recently changed, according to Dr. Ryke Cowley, president of the Utah A. U. to Madison Square Garden, scene of innumerable famous sporting events and of the recent National A. U. boxing meet, will place A. U. wrestlers from all sections of the country on exhibition on June 28, 29, 30 and July 1 and 2. Indefinitely, Madison Square garden has already seen this year's Utah athlete quality for the U. S. Olympic team when Bob Hecker, Salt Lake boxer, was one of three chosen to represent Uncle Sam.

The three best wrestlers at each division of the A. U. meet at New York will be sent to the final Olympic tryouts at Columbus, Ohio, later in July, from which meet Uncle Sam's Olympic wrestling team will be selected for the Olympic games at Los Angeles, California, the following month.

First Cougars to try. Smith and Young will be the first B. Y. U. wrestlers to attempt qualifying on the U. S. Olympic team. They went through the 1922 collegiate wrestling season in Utah without a defeat, filling up impressive victories in every meet. During the season each one earned the state championship, western division championship and finally the inter-mountains A. A. title.

The members number of non-athletes is estimated at 100. The officers of the club are: President, Artie

"Alonzo" are to band together at the university in a new club to be called the "Rans Form Club of 'Nearlies'".

This tournament is open to members of all solid units and players may enter either singles or doubles but we both. Points in tournaments scoring will be awarded to 1st and 2nd place winners. All entries must be handed to Provo Jensen before Friday night.

Next Sunday, a Village in the defuncting singles champ, while Tony Bonwells and Mel Lake, Cougar runners hold the doubles crown.
